DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

3. Regarding claim 1, the phrase "or the like" renders the claim(s) indefinite because the claim(s) include(s) elements not actually disclosed (those encompassed by "or the like"), thereby rendering the scope of the claim(s) unascertainable. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

4. Claims 2-11 recite the limitation "The invention" in line 1, respectively. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claims. It is suggested that applicant delete "invention" and insert --device-- therefor.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102/103

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 1724

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 1-2 and 8-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Marbach.

Marbach teaches a net (30) for collecting said debris, said net having a top open portion (Fig. 1), a bottom closed portion with a centerline and a continuous sidewall (Figs. 1-2), a frame (40, 41) for supporting the net around the perimeter of said net, a pole (36,48) to attach to said frame for holding and manipulating said device, and a means (32) connected and enclosed to said bottom closed portion of said net to maintain said net in an open and receptive position while it is manipulated and moved along and below the water's surface to collect, store and remove debris while dragging itself below the surface (col. 3, line 68; col. 4, lines 1-3; Fig. 1). Marbach does not explicitly disclose that the means is to be used as a means to grasp said bottom closed portion in the process of emptying said net of debris.

It is submitted that the recitation is clearly one of intended use which does not add structure to the device. Accordingly, it is submitted that the recitation, while being considered by the examiner, is not given patentable weight in the claim.

If it is applicant's position that the recitation adds structure to the claim, then the examiner notes that the bottom portion can be grasped when emptying the net of debris.

Art Unit: 1724

Per claim 9, it is submitted that the means is inherently protected from snagging or catching itself on objects as the means is enclosed in the net.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 3-7 and 11 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

9. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

Per claims 3-7, while claim 2 is not patentable for the reasons provided above, in the examiner's opinion, the prior art fails to teach or fairly suggest the bottom closed portion being enlarged by the means. The instant invention provides the advantage of facilitating debris collection.

Per claim 11, while claim 1 is not patentable for the reasons provided above, in the examiner's opinion, the prior art fails to teach or render obvious providing the means in a laterally offset manner relative to the centerline to enable rotation and lying against the bottom closed portion in a horizontal position. The instant invention provides the advantage of enlarging the bottom portion, thereby facilitating debris collection.

Conclusion

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. References are cited of interest to show the state of the art.
